

My Journey

- 18 Years
- 20 Projects
- 6 Clients
- XX dollars in value

2004

Started Career in IT Consulting as a Project Engineer , working for a Large Insurance Client helping development of Fire processing system using MVS , COBOL ,JCL, DB2

2007

Promoted to a Senior Software Engineer and a Team Lead at TESCO PLC as a recognition for contribution to the success of Tesco's first ecommerce website

2011

Promoted as Manager & Technology Architect at cognizant as a recognition of managing a tough project with high stakes working with geo distributed teams.

path progression

2014

Delivered , first ever migration of Ab Initio based ETL pipelines to Hadoop cluster from Unix servers while re-engineering over 1000 batch jobs with a 22 member large team for 16 months.

2016

Promoted to a Senior Manager/Sr. Architect & assigned a critical and challenging program for a health Insurance provider. Started the program from the scratch and successfully closed in 2 years.

path progression

06/2022

Embarked on a journey to fullfill personal commitments and take care of immediate family members post COVID